NRA Certified Firearms Instructor Courses

~ Share your love of the shooting sports ~

As an Instructor, you can experience the personal satisfaction of teaching others the basics -- the knowledge, skills and attitude that will lead to a lifetime of safe, enjoyable and successful involvement in firearm and shooting activities.

Instructors provide an invaluable service in their communities by training hundreds of thousands of individuals annually. As firearm and shooting activities expand, and more Americans choose to exercise their right to own a firearm, so too grows the need for these courses (and the Instructors to teach them).

All first-time Instructor Candidates and inactive NRA Instructor Candidates are required to take the NRA Basic Instructor Training course BEFORE they can proceed to any specific discipline (Home Firearm Safety, Pistol, Shotgun, Rifle, or either Personal Protection course). If you are already a Certified Instructor but it has been longer than one year since you successfully completed the NRA Basic Instructor Training, you are encouraged to take the NRA Basic Instructor Training.
